World-renowned transformational speakers in South Africa

Benjamin and Rosamund Stone Zander, world-renowned transformational speakers on leadership and the authors of "The Art of Possibility" will be in South Africa on a 3 week visit in August 2008. Their aim? To re-ignite the flames of possibility for South Africans!

Benjamin's Art of Possibility presentation will be open to the public and hosted by Symphonia Consulting, taking place at VodaWorld (Midrand) on Friday, 15th and Wednesday, 20th August 2008; and Thursday, 21st & Friday, 22nd August 2008 at Artscape Theatre, Cape Town. A series of group discussions, public events, media interviews, concerts as well as facilitator training are on their agenda.

Benjamin, who has appeared five times as a keynote speaker at the World Economic Forum in Davos, is a fairly frequent visitor to South Africa and displays a keen interest in the Rainbow Nation, hoping to impact the country with his "South Africa: Alive with possibility" message.

A world-renowned conductor, Benjamin has the ability to ignite and inspire groups of people with his extraordinary public speaking skills – using the power of music to mobilise people into action and a sense of possibility. His methods include audience participation, musical demonstrations and singing. A typical presentation includes the exploration of leadership, teamwork, creativity, relationship, partnership and the liberation of the human spirit.

Interested? The cost to attend the presentation is R1 350 (plus VAT). A 10% discount applies to group bookings for more than 10 people.
