

Women in Leadership Breakfast

Inspire, Equip, Support

Theme – Self-care: Nourish to Flourish

More about our Speakers

Morongwa Makgamatho (Morongwa M Business Solutions)

“A woman of substance, the phenomenal YOU!” – An inspirational talk for women on how to be the best in and out of the boardroom

Motivational speaker, entrepreneur, author, consultant and philanthropist - Morongwa Makgamatho has an MBA and over 20 years of local and international experience. Morongwa is highly regarded as the authority on topics relating to developing value adding business strategies, the implementation of change management, performance management and effective human resource management strategies. What gives Morongwa her unique depth of insight into the human spirit is her own story of personal transformation. From being the managing director of a successful consulting firm, Morongwa went on to see that same company closing its doors – leaving her personally indebted for over millions of rands. Today Morongwa is debt free, once again having built up a successful business.

Pavashnee Govenden (Clicks)

“Building leadership resilience and behavioural competencies” – Transcending from the Head to the Heart

Pavashnee Govenden is a performance-driven retail management professional and a certified Brain Practitioner with 18 years of experience. She has built her resilience in leadership; offering different perspectives and unafraid of her success as a woman in business leadership. She sets herself apart in leadership with integrity and the ability to face and overcome adversities. Behavioural competencies coupled with resilience have maintained her work-life balance. She believes that the capacity to bounce back from perceived and actual mishaps, setbacks, and adversity — has been overlooked as a leadership competency. Building and enhancing resilience and behavioural competencies supported her climb in the corporate ladder and will move women from being ordinary to extraordinary.

Sue Jameson (JOYburg)

“Dynamic Living” – Conquering stress through the transforming power of joy and laughter

Sue is an accomplished South African and international inspirational speaker, joy activist and laughter coach. She has studied laughter, joy and happiness for over twenty years and, as a skilled coach. Sue has addressed thousands of people, building motivation and inspiring small and large groups. She speaks and presents joy and laughter workshops and training in leading corporations, hospitals, colleges, schools, churches and other organisations. She has her audiences roaring with laughter, and gives them life-changing skills to combat stress, the No 1 killer in the world! Sue has featured on TV, and has produced and presented a radio show called ‘The JoyRide’. She is founder of the JOYburg city transformation initiative (www.joyburg.co.za) and the Joy Revolution.

JOHANNESBURG

Friday, 23 February 2018
African Pride Melrose Arch Hotel

TIME

09:00 – 12:00 (08:30 registration)

INVESTMENT

R490.00 Excl VAT

BOOK NOW!

For bookings click here or contact Johleen on 021 913 3507 or johleen@symphonia.net

Delegates stand a chance to win prizes to the value of R11,200.00
Including a Spa & Spur voucher and a book by Brené Brown

Proud sponsor

www.symphonia.net

SYMPHONIA
Leadership Development