

Women in Leadership Breakfast

Inspire, Equip, Support

Theme for May: Gender Equality: Are we making progress?

More about our Speakers

Mary-Ann Prince (TTi Global South Africa)

"The role of female leaders in promoting gender equity" – Female leaders to serve as enablers for other women

Mary-Ann is the executive director at TTI Global South Africa and is responsible for the learning and development component as well as corporate governance within the company. She holds a B.A. Soc Sc (Hons) in Social work, an honours degree in functional therapy, certificate in entertainment (copyright and contract law) and is currently completing her post graduate diploma in corporate governance at Monash. She has 19 year's experience as a program manager in education and training and as a professional social worker. Mary-Ann has extensive experience in the field of soft skills and leadership/management training as well as personal development and emotional intelligence. She is trained and experienced in the field of functional therapy, and is a specialist in counselling and life coaching.

Nonku Pitje (Discovery)

"Heels Ahead" – A model and systematic approach to levelling the playing fields for women in the business world

Over the last two decades, Nonku had the privilege of working in, and leading varied areas of business in dynamic organisations; and the pleasure of working with exceptional colleagues. She can say without a doubt, that the biggest growth and learning journey of her career to date, was the 5 year she served as an executive, leading the People fertility within Discovery Health. Leading the transformation journey in partnership with her CEO and the executive committee. Nonku became acutely alive to the work that still had to be done as a business/country and as a global committee in creating diverse (race & gender) and inclusive leadership teams, equivalent with the talent pools in the market place. While Nonku has moved on to lead different parts of the business, she remains focused and passionate about replicating models that can cause a great change in the advancement of women in the business world.

Nomfuzo Ntlosi (Executive coach and facilitator)

"The rock and the hard place" – The complexity of cracking the glass ceiling

Nomfuzo is a human development practitioner with 18 experience. She is a professional certified executive leadership development, business and personal-mastery coach, an accredited facilitator and faculty member at The Coaching Centre School of Coaching and Development for learner coaches. Her combined experience over the years has enabled her to remain open in working with diversity and various levels of leadership in private and public sectors. Her passion is in enabling individuals/teams to cultivate a conscious new and effective way of being and doing that which is aligned to their personal and professional values in order to experience wholeness. Her heart smiles and she shines when mentoring young people in her community. Nomfuzo is avidly engaged with women development and speaking on various life topics privately and professionally.

JOHANNESBURG

Friday, 18 May 2018

African Pride Melrose Arch Hotel

TIME

09:00 – 12:00 (08:30 registration)

INVESTMENT

R490.00 Excl VAT

BOOK NOW!

For bookings click here or contact

Johleen on 021 913 3507 or

johleen@symphonia.net

Delegates stand a chance to win prizes to the value of R11,300!
Including a Spa & Spur voucher and a book by Brené Brown

Proud sponsors

SYMPHONIA
Leadership Development

www.symphonia.net