

Women in Leadership Breakfast

Inspire, Equip, Support

Aligning Passion with Purpose

Johannesburg | 27 February 2019

More about our Speakers

Lynette Hundermark (Useful and Beautiful)

"If you are passionate enough about something, that will always shine through and you will find a way to persevere and never give up."

With over 20 years' of experience in the tech, digital marketing and mobile solutions space, Lynette co-founded specialist mobile solutions consultancy Useful & Beautiful. She is regarded as one of top 30 most influential women in SA digital marketing, a multiple award winner for her work, a Regional Business Woman of the Year Award finalist and a finalist as a Female Role Model of the Year in the Global Start up Awards. Lynette has created some of the most successful mobile solutions in Africa and also speaks regularly at a variety of local and international tech conferences. She is frequently quoted in SA and African media and spends her spare time supporting "Women in Tech initiatives" and mentoring app students at the University of Western Cape.

Tanya Ramlagan (Jaguar/Land Rover South Africa)

"Passion, a man and the moon."

Tanya Ramlagan is an experienced professional and business executive with more than 18 years' work experience, 12 of which was at general manager and executive level, across the hospitality, mining and manufacturing sectors. This has allowed her to build extensive broad-based business experience and subject matter expertise in various fields. Her contribution to talent management, learning & development, business strategy and global project management has been significant with national and international accolades. As one of 4 sisters and a mother of 2 young ladies Tanya is passionate about ensuring that young girls believe that they can be anything they dream of and aims to be a role model to women and particularly her daughters, to show that you can become your dream.

Ashnie Muthusamy (Sun International)

"Stand still, be present and listen to your heart sing."

Ashnie has a degree in psychology, a master's diploma in human resources management and a master's degree in leadership. She is a qualified master's practitioner in neurolinguistics programming and an accredited change practitioner. She is also an author of the book "Succession Management: Definite Do's and Detrimental Dont's." For the last 20 years she has worked in the field of talent management in various large scale organisations. She presently heads up the talent management function in Sun International. She is a frequent speaker globally in the various fields of human resources and is passionate about optimizing human potential.

JOHANNESBURG

Wednesday, 27 February 2019

African Pride Melrose Arch Hotel

TIME

09:00 – 12:00 (08:30 registration)

INVESTMENT

R490 excl. VAT

BOOK NOW!

For bookings click here or contact

Johleen on 021 913 3507 or

johleen@symphonia.net

Delegates stand a chance to win prizes to the value of R28 000!
Including a Spa & Spur voucher and a book by Brené Brown

Proud sponsors

www.symphonia.net

SYMPHONIA
Leadership Development