

Women in Leadership Breakfast

Inspire, Equip, Support

Disrupting the Status Quo

Johannesburg | 14 August 2019

More about our Speakers

Lerato Nxomani-Pakade (Regent Career Architects)

“What if we focussed on what’s right about people?”

Lerato is a talent strategist and activist-entrepreneur. Her company, Regent Career Architects, provides insights to organisations interested in attracting, retaining, developing and advancing diverse talent. Regent also designs and delivers training and facilitation solutions in leadership and talent development. Lerato is energised by coaching professionals to design compelling career strategies that honour their unique talents, and develop those talents into strengths through deliberate practice. She is a speaker and writer, focusing on using Inclusion to build stronger corporate cultures, as well as on all things millennial - particularly amplifying the positive contributions millennial professionals will make to the future of work. Lerato has an honours degree in economics, and is currently completing her research towards her master’s degree at the London School of Economics.

Leah Kitoloh (LeahK)

“Navigating the new Paradigms of work”

Leah lives with purpose towards building a legacy for future generations by collaborating with thought leaders to future proof skills across Africa. She has a remarkable record of accomplishments across the Pan African continent that enabled her to develop a strong motivation to excel in the Learning & Performance field across business sectors. As a seasoned speaker, certified Neurozone career coach and Brand Activator, she is recognised for her energy, agility, quick thinking and action. Leah’s growth mind-set, vast experience and outstanding professional attributes are a positive contribution to drive human performance improvement in the African Continent. Leah is the founder and director of A Women’s Worth Chapter, as well as managing partner at the Art Kartel Media.

Nokwazi Mzobe (Matoyana)

“Step into your awesome”

Nokwazi is an entrepreneur, part-time lecturer and author of the Small Business Handbook. She is the managing director of Matoyana, a boutique consulting firm that enables more small business owners in Africa to run successful, sustainable businesses and to promote a culture of entrepreneurship and innovative thinking. In 2018 she launched the Fearless Woman Campaign, featuring 23 inspirational South African woman breaking barriers in their lives and carriers. She has over 8 years work experience with 2 Fortune 500 multinationals in the FMCG and Telecoms industry. She holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of KwaZulu-Natal; an Honours Degree from Wits University and an MBA from Hult International Business School.

JOHANNESBURG

Wednesday, 14 August 2019

African Pride Melrose Arch Hotel

TIME

09:00 – 12:00 (08:30 registration)

INVESTMENT

R515 excl. VAT

BOOK NOW!

For bookings click here or contact

Johleen on 021 913 3507 or johleen@symphonia.net

Delegates stand a chance to win prizes to the value of R10 600!
Including a Spa & Spur voucher and a book by Brené Brown

Proud sponsors

www.symphonia.net

SYMPHONIA
Leadership Development