

WORLD-RENOWNED TRANSFORMATIONAL SPEAKERS RETURN TO SOUTH AFRICA DECEMBER 2008!

South Africans will get the chance to experience Benjamin Zander, who will be doing the opening keynote presentation at the world-economic forum in Davos (January 2009). Benjamin and Rosamund Stone Zander, world-renowned speakers on transformation and leadership, who co-authored the book "The Art of Possibility", will be returning to South Africa in December 2008. During their successful tour in August 2008, more than 10,000 South Africans saw the Art of Possibility presentations but there are still many who missed out, hence their return to the country in December. Their Art of Possibility presentation will again be open to the public and hosted by Symphonia Leadership Development.

 On Monday, 1st December, the presentation will be taking place at the CTICC in Cape Town and on Wednesday, 3rd December at VodaWorld (Midrand) in Johannesburg.

A world-renowned conductor, Benjamin has the ability to ignite and inspire groups of people with his extraordinary public speaking skills – using the power of music to mobilise people into action and a sense of possibility. His methods include audience participation, musical demonstrations and singing. A typical presentation includes the exploration of leadership, teamwork, creativity, relationship, partnership and the liberation of the human spirit.

Having appeared many times at the World Economic Forum at Davos,

Benjamin has been asked to do the opening keynote presentation at Davos in January! Symphonia Leadership Development is very proud to be creating the opportunity for South Africans to hear the message that the world leaders will be hearing in January 2009.

Benjamin and Rosamund have visited South Africa 6 times and have responded to an invitation by Louise van Rhyen, CEO of Symphonia, who cares deeply about South Africa and has been concerned about the fact that many South Africans have lost sight of Possibility. The Zanders have an extraordinary schedule and we are delighted that they are able to fit in another visit to the country in 2008. However, we can't guarantee that they will be able to return in 2009, so to avoid disappointment, we recommend booking your seat soonest!

Interested? For bookings made and paid for before 15th October - the cost is R1 200.00 per person (plus VAT). For bookings made and paid for after 15th October – the cost is R1 500.00 (plus VAT). A 10% discount applies to group bookings for more than 10 people. Contact Johleen van Dyk (johleen@symphonia.net) to book.

We are encouraging leaders to bring their teams and clients to this presentation as a perfect end-of-year function. There is no greater gift than a renewed sense of possibility and the Art of Possibility presentation is guaranteed to provide that!

Benjamin and Rosamund Stone Zander to present THE ART OF POSSIBILITY IN SOUTH AFRICA

December 2008

Back by popular demand! Following their hugely successful tour to South Africa in August 2008, Ben and Roz Zander will return in December to offer two more "Art of Possibility" presentations.

Benjamin Zander is a world-renowned conductor and an inspirational speaker on Leadership and the 'Art of Possibility'. He co-authored the book 'Art of Possibility' with his partner Rosamund Stone Zander. She is an executive coach and family systems therapist, and develops models for leadership, relationship and effective action.

Ben has appeared five times as a keynote speaker at the World Economic Forum in Davos. Alec Hogg (Moneyweb) saw him in Davos in January 2008: "Zander is a fairly frequent visitor to South Africa. Apart from an obvious affinity for the Rainbow Nation, he has also been "discovered" by corporates who bring him over to help articulate visions and share ideas on the New Age manager. Occasionally outsiders are invited. Should you happen upon the opportunity, grab it. After putting his ideas to the test, who knows how many shining eyes might soon greet you at the office?"

Alec Hogg, Moneyweb website

Ben has the ability to ignite and inspire large groups of people in a 3 hour session – he uses the power of music to galvanise people to action and a sense of possibility.

In 2009, Benjamin Zander will deliver the opening keynote presentation at the World Economic Forum. Now you have the opportunity to experience this inspirational speaker and musician live in South Africa.

Ben and Roz have made a special commitment to return to South Africa in December. Don't miss this opportunity – we don't know whether there will be another chance to experience this inspirational presentation live in South Africa.

Then watch this 20 minute video of Ben's presentation at the TED conference earlier this year.

The 1,600 people in attendance responded with a standing ovation and called this presentation the most inspirational talk of the conference http://blog.ted.com/2008/06/benjamin_zander.php

Some comments from attendees of the August "Art of Possibility" presentations:

"Ben Zander is the hottest property on the management guru circuit"

Tom Peters

"In the presence of either Zander, one's spirit soars"

Gail Sheehy

"Roz Zander has a genius for creating innovative paradigms for personal and professional fulfillment"

"What a superb morning! Seldom have I attended such an uplifting and entertaining seminar. I learnt a lot and looking at the faces around me, I could see people were enthralled"

Errol Ballantine

"As a health care professional, I would have no hesitation in strongly recommending the Zanders. They blend alchemy, insight, music and laughter in a presentation that is both pure delight as well as the 101 of new consciousness."

Gerard Finnemore, Clinical Psychologist

"I strongly recommend this presentation to anyone who questions life, and how we live it. It is not the usual 'rah rah' of the motivational speaker, but rather a real list of attitudes and approaches that we can adopt."

Helaine Lindsay

"Having attended a couple of hours in the company of 1500 industry leaders and being led by Ben was one of the most powerful experiences I have had the privilege to be a part of."

Jackie Launder

"Thank you for the opportunity to attend the high-energy presentation by Ben Zander. This is how I wish to be when I get to his age. It was a great value-add professionally and to my personal life. Showing my team possibilities that they may not have seen before was the great lesson for me"

Wayne Blauw

"Your presentation was fun, insightful and vibrant. We need this positive energy in South Africa and it was a huge privilege to be able to attend it. Thank you for believing in South Africa and for spreading a universal message of possibility."
