

Rama Naidu

Organisational Development Practitioner

“Of all of the courses I've done throughout my career, the two sessions with Rama Naidu were the ones in which I experienced the greatest personal and professional development. I have never come away from a workshop with so many tools that I will actually use, so many ideas that have changed the way I interact with the world and so much enthusiasm to effect change immediately. Rama's extensive experience was evident in the way he lifted both workshops to a level that I have never experienced before. His humour and intellectual gems kept us hanging onto his every word.

I would encourage every organisation to gift their leaders and employees with – at the very least - one workshop hosted by this remarkable man.”

Business Coach, Old Mutual Wealth

“Rama designed and facilitated a process whereby we brought all stakeholders into the room and we have co-created a new, distinct and inspiring strategic path for the school. The process was energetic and instilled enthusiasm in all the participants. One year later we have a clear and understandable strategic vision which is being vigorously implemented by the Board and management in the day to day management of the school.”

St Andrew's School for Girls

Rama Naidu is an organisational development practitioner with more than 15 years of experience both nationally and internationally. He is a Fellow of the International IGold Gestalt Leadership and Organisational Development Programme and an international affiliate of Designed Learning based in the US. Rama has recently completed a Masterclass in Flawless Consulting in Cincinnati and is now part of a global network that will take this work into the world outside of the US.

He has done extensive work on the importance of community building and human connection to serve a bigger purpose larger than ourselves.

He has the amazing opportunity to work with the Partners for Possibility (PfP) in the field of community building and flawless consulting.

Rama has been in senior leadership positions for the past 35 years where he gained experience working with complex organisations in radically different contexts. He served as a member of the World Economic Forum (WEF) based in Davos, Switzerland for two years as a social activist and continues to be actively involved in the non-profit sector.

Rama specializes in the area of leadership, diversity, community building and scenario planning, and his approach is embedded in the philosophy of abundance and possibility, rather than deficit and scarcity.

He has formed a new consulting company (www.6degreeshift.com) recently, that specializes in connecting people and organisations to their possibilities to re-ignite and align passion, intention and possibility.
